

LINDSAY, Edgar Monroe, Bishop of Nounan, Bear Lake co., Idaho, was born Jan. 17, 1857, at Kaysville, Davis co., Utah, the son of Wm. B. Lindsey and Julia Parks. He moved with his parents to Paris, Bear Lake co., Idaho, in 1864, and passed through the hardships incident to the settling of that cold country. He was baptized in 1868 by Thos. Sleight and labored in the different callings of the Priesthood from the office of Deacon to that of a High Priest. He was ordained to the latter office Aug. 7, 1897, by Wm. Budge. Sept. 30, 1880, he married Sarah Ann Beach of Logan, Utah, and soon afterwards located at Nounan, where he still resides. In 1894-96 he filled a mission to Great Britain, laboring in Belfast (Ireland) and surrounding country. On his return home he was appointed Bishop of the Nounan Ward, Bear Lake Stake, Aug. 7, 1897, which position he still holds. Bishop Lindsay's principal occupations in life have been those of farmer and dairy man. LDS Bio Ency 2:663
